Dear Mr. Braden:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, who is away on an extended trip out of the country, may I acknowledge and thank you for your letters of September 11 and 12.

Unfortunately, Mr. Dulles is not expected to return until around the middle of October. I'm sure he will regret not being here to send a congratulatory message in time for your first Sunday edition on September 30.

I am taking the liberty of calling your letter concerning [redacted] to the attention of the proper people here for consideration. We very much appreciate your giving us his name.

Both your letters will be brought to the attention of Mr. Dulles upon his return.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Assistant to the Director
